

After having completed her studies in Philosophy and Visual Cultures between Bologna (Università di Bologna) and London (Goldsmiths college), in 2017 Adele Ghirri started working for the Estate of Luigi Ghirri which I direct since then. Her research has mainly focused on the idea of the photographic archives as open, multidisciplinary and productive spaces, encouraging new perspectives on the subject alongside more traditional/historical approaches.